The Addiction Studies Program is not designed to lead to a particular career, occupation, vocation, job title, job classification, or field of gainful employment; and Breining Institute does not make any express or implied claim related to preparing students for a particular career, occupation, vocation, job, or job title. Breining Institute makes no representation as to the likelihood of your obtaining gainful employment in any capacity upon graduation, and specifically makes no representation as to the likelihood of your obtaining full or part-time employment, any single or concurrent aggregated position, self-employment, freelance positions, or institutional employment. This program may or may not result in freelance or self-employment.

- The work available to graduates of this program may be for freelance or self-employment.
- This type of work may not be consistent.
- If freelance or self-employed, the period of employment can range from one day to weeks to several months.
- If freelance or self-employed, hours worked in a day or week may be more or less than the traditional 8 hour work day or 40 hour work week.
- If freelance or self-employed, you can expect to spend unpaid time expanding your networks, advertising, promoting your services, or honing your skills.
- Once graduates begin to work freelance or are self-employed, they will not be asked to provide documentation that they are employed as such as this institution does not maintain job placement records.
- Students initialing this disclosure understand that the institution does not collect data to determine whether a majority or any of this school’s graduates are employed in this manner, and understand what compromises this work style.

A list of sources used to substantiate salary disclosures is not available from the school. Breining Institute makes no express or implied claim about the salary that may be earned after completing the Addiction Studies Program. The Addiction Studies Program is not designed to lead to a particular salary range, career, occupation, vocation, trade, job, job title, or field.

Cost of Educational Program:

Total Charges for the Addiction Studies Program for students completing on-time in 2017: $2,161.70. Total Charges may be higher for students that do not complete on-time.

Total Charges for the Addiction Studies Program for students completing on-time in 2018: $2,161.70. Total Charges may be higher for students that do not complete on-time.
Federal Student Loan Debt at Breining Institute:

Students at Breining Institute are not eligible for federal student loans. The U.S. Department of Education has determined that only schools accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the Secretary of Education to accredit schools can participate in federal student aid programs; and this institution is not accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the Secretary of Education so its students are not allowed to participate in federal student aid programs.

Definitions:

CRC Title 5, Div.7.5, Chpt.4, Art. 2, Section 74112(l)

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six month period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
• “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

• “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

• “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

• “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

• “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

• “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.
STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL:
A student may cancel an enrollment agreement through the seventh day after enrollment or before the first lesson and materials are received in a distance learning program. The notice of cancellation must be in writing. Breining Institute will refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less the non-refundable Registration Fee of $75.00, if written notice of cancellation is made through the seventh day after enrollment or made before the first lesson and materials are received in a distance learning program. Breining Institute will pay or credit refunds within 45 calendar days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. Cancellation shall occur when the student gives written notice of cancellation at the address of the school. This can be done by US postal mail, hand delivery or e-mail. The written notice of cancellation is effective when received by the college. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

CERTIFICATION BY STUDENT:
I have read and understand this Student's Right To Cancel.
